1. Heard Advocate for the plaintiff. This is a chamber summons taken out for a direction to the defendant to disclose on oath the movable and immovable properties owned by defendant. From the affidavit of service dated 20.11.2006 it appears that though the defendant is served, he has chosen not to remain present.

In the circumstances, Chamber summons is made absolute in terms of prayer clause-(d). Copy of this order should be communicated by R.P.A.D. to the defendant and defendant shall comply with order by receipt of such notice by R.P.A.D. It is made clear that if notice is refused, it will be treated as good service.
